

The University of Helsinki hereby conveys its warmest congratulations to the Kazan Federal University

on the occasion of the 210th anniversary.

The close and active co-operation between our two universities has continued for years and the University of Helsinki remains deeply committed to furthering this valuable relationship.

May the Kazan Federal University continue to have every success in the future.

Helsinki, November 7th, 2014

Jukka Kola
Rector