

Since the signing of Declaration of independence a truly American Nation was established. That great day was the starting point of American nation to develop, grow and flourish through years of depression. Turning to some historical facts American Nation already at the very moment of establishing consisted of Spaniard, Potuguese, Frenchmen, Dutch and Russian people. That mixture was speaking English giving a tip to us for determination of the nation. Table 1 "Immigration Volume and Rates"

This example shows us that not the place make a man patriot. He and only he decide to what country he belongs. Many immigrants in America brought prosperity with them to the country. They loved their new motherland. They opened a new horizon in each sphere from biology to physics and from cinema to engineering.

"They went through the easy or difficult way of adjusting life in a foreign country but they managed to embrace it whole heartedly and created productive lives. Most of these people are either in the media, politics, arts, business and sports. Some of these famous people include Jerry Yang, Arnold Schwarzenegger, Madeleine Albright, Michael J Fox, Anthony Hopkins. The Austrian born bodybuilding star, Arnold Schwarzenegger, received his US citizenship in 1983. His career in bodybuilding opened doors of Hollywood opportunities by starring in numerous box office films. Arnold Schwarzenegger is also a business man with Planet Hollywood as one of his more popular business ventures together with other celebrities. He is currently the Governor of the state of California serving his second term. Michael J Fox was born in Canada but his passion for acting led him to Los Angeles, California. He starred in television shows and movies which gave recognition to his acting abilities. Michael J Fox was diagnosed with Parkinson's disease in 1991. He has put up Michael J Fox Foundation to support his Parkinson's research advocacy. He is a holder of Canadian-US citizenship.

The 1990's Hannibal role made Anthony Hopkins famous along with other movies he has made since starting his film career. Anthony Hopkins starred as Hannibal Lecter in The Silence of the Lambs, Hannibal and Red Dragon, respectively. He was born in Wales and acquired his naturalized US citizenship on 2000." ("Famous Immigrants to the United States - Part 1").

All of them were fighting for live back-to-back with other Americans, promoting high standards of life and creating high sufficient technologies, remedies and overwhelming life comfort in day-to-day life. For more striking highlighting of American situation regarding ethnic policy and self-determination we can take other examples of multinational countries. In February 2011 France, Italy, Germany and Holland admitted the immigration policy failure. From year to year the tension between ethnic groups are becoming strained, new waves of social conflicts became normal in those countries. They are the multinational countries but it's only in paper and statistic. In fact they are divided and with various problems among citizens. If there are no problems between ethnic groups there are problems between citizens and government. Will a real patriot, a real citizen of beloved country ruin it? The answer is No!

Contrary to the France or Italy the USA has various ethnicities but there are no open conflicts, everyone can choose what he wants. Immigrants are not the people of second quality. They are equal to others. Thousands of immigrants live there and each give the benefits to his country making no damage to it. One can say that there is no equality between ethnics right. Rights violated. I can say two names: Barak Obama, Martin Luther King. If inequality exist how could we were able to hear these names? America is not a multinational country. America is united not by a national characteristic but by mind, idea, faith in country, opportunities. One language, one idea, one faith exactly this determines nation as single. What about countries where only one nation live, aren't they united? Egypt, Lebanon, Algeria and many others showed dispersion on different social classes and movements. Country couldn't be united in this situation. But still such countries as Great Britain, Russia, Swiss, Canada is united and strong. America is unique country where immigrants, nation diversity, opportunities and possibilities brings together forming togetherness, common spirit of nation. The only thing uniting Arnold Schwarzenegger, Antony Hopkins, Keanu Reeves is the love to America. Such country could not be a nation of immigrants, nor could it be multinational. This country has only one nation! One for all Americans. They are the patriots!
