
CONFIRMATION

April 12, 2023, London

To Whom It May Concern,

This confirmation serves to acknowledge and confirm that the book chapter titled “The content modification within the framework of the massive open online courses (case study: International and Russian practices)”, written by Associate Prof. Nurutdinova was published in the book “Massive Open Online Courses - Current Practice and Future Trends” edited by Dr. Goundar on

All scientific Works published by IntechOpen are subject to peer review prior to publishing. All submitted book chapters undergo a main Editor peer review, while Editors' chapters undergo external blind peer review. IntechOpen is a member of the Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE) and all participating referees and editors are instructed to review submitted scientific Works in line with the COPE Ethical Guidelines for Peer-Reviewers where applicable.

According to our policy all the chapters from the book “Massive Open Online Courses - Current Practice and Future Trends” were submitted for peer-review.

Best regards,

IntechOpen

