03 June 2015

Educational and scientific laboratories

The department administers the Content and Language Integrated Learning Laboratory.

Its objectives are:

1. to study the experience of using CLIL technology in foreign educational practice;

2. to work out lectures, workshops, educational materials based on the CLIL technology;

3. to conduct master classes and courses on CLIL technology in Russian educational institutions;

4. to organize research and scientific conferences on bilingual education.

Keywords: Higher School of Russian Language and Intercultural Communication, The Department of Educational Technology and Information Systems in Philology, Educational and scientific laboratories