

We shall discuss a connection between commuting ordinary differential operators and commuting difference operators. In particular, we construct a discretization of the Lamé operator that preserves the spectral curve. The results were obtained with Gulnara Mauleshova.