

Dear professor Ramil Hairutdnikov,

I had opportunity to spend wonderful days in the Kazana and happy to go back to home in Riga.

Thank you for possibility to participate in the International forum "History for all" from 15.11.2017 till 17.11.2017 which was organized by Institute of the International relationships and history in the Federal University of Kazana.

I am thankful for possibility to acquire experience from your colleges professor F. Muhametzjanova and as. professor O. Panchenko how to organize a forum, which joined young scientists and researchers with greater experience. Extensive work has been done from professor F. Muhametzjanova and as. professor O. Panchenko. The Forum was excellent. Forum successfully joined students, academic staff and teachers from different schools.

I am grateful for the opportunity see a creative approach how to organize this broad forum, as well as to participate in discussions, meetings with colleges from different universities.

I regret that we could not meet each other, but I hope our cooperation will continue in join projects and other events.

I informed my colleges and they are interested in contacts with academic staff for collaboration in the future, too. I personally am interested in contacts with your colleges, because they are with great experience in pedagogy and psychology science.

Thank you for your support and I wish you success in your academic and scientific career.

Yours faithfully,

professor of the University of Latvia, doctor in pedagogy science Zenta Anspoka
